Draft rules for advance payment of teaching grants in instalments to aided higher elementary schools in the South Kanara District.

The District Educational Council, South Kanara, may on the recommendations of the Inspecting Officers consider applications from the managers and correspondents of any well-conducted permanently aided higher elementary schools for advance payments of teaching grants in instalments.

2. The amount of teaching grant payable for any year should depend upon the number of teachers employed in each school, vide Appendix to G.O.No.208 Law(Education) dated 21.2.1922.

3. To determine as accurately as possible the amount to be paid in each instalment, managers of the permitted schools shall submit through the Inspecting Officers monthly statements in the prescribed (C) form 22 of appendix to the above mentioned Government Order containing the details of the number, names, qualifications and periods of service of all teachers employed in the school and also a declaration that the amount of the previous instalment of grant received by the management has been actually disbursed to the teachers and that their proper receipts have been duly obtained in the acquittance roll of the school whose maintenance shall be compulsory in such schools. This monthly statement shall be verifie with the original school records maintained in the schools at the visits of Inspecting Officers and in token of such verification, the Inspecting Officers shall furnish a certificate to that effect along with their Inspection Reports.

4. The amount of monthly, quarterly or half-yearly instalments of teaching grants shall be determined only with reference to statements prescribed in rule 3 above. As the teaching grant is for a whole year, a monthly instalment shall be 1/12 of the estimated annual amount and the quarterly or half-yearly instalments shall be with reference to the monthly amount subject however to such -- adjustments as are noted in rule 6 below.

adjustments

5. The recommendations of the Inspecting Officers shall contain the following tabulated information and column (h) thereof shall be filled up by the President of the District Educational Council.

a) Serial number of the school in the list of recognised and aided schools.

b) Name of school, locality, Taluk or Municipality.

c) Name of manager, name of correspondent and postal address

d) Amount of teaching grant paid in each of the last 3 consecutive years and average.

e) Number of instalments and amount of each instalment recommended.

f) Recommendation of the Deputy Inspector or Sub-Assistant Inspectress with signature and date.

g) Recommendations, with modifications, if any, of the District Educational Officer or the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, with signature and date.

h) Copy of resolution of the District Educational Council and number of instalments and amount of each instalment sanctioned with signature of the President of the Council and date.

6. The payment of instalments shall be subject to final adjustment after inspection of the school by the Inspecting Officers, and such final adjustments shall also be noted in the personal ledger prescribed in rule 8.

7. The amount sanctioned for payment in each instalment shall be drawn in a teaching grant bill form (appendix 23) as per rule 8 of the rules under section 42(2) of the Madras Elementary Education Act, 1920, and shall be paid to the manager of the school who will as usual pay all incidental postage and registration charges for transmission of cheques sent by post.
